1.) Personnel

Mayor Harmon appointed James Thorn as the Chief of Police of Temple.

Motion: Council Member Miller motioned to approve the appointment

2nd: Council Member Walden Passed 4-0

Mayor Harmon said that he had talked with Kim Pope on Thursday and that she had informed him that she would accept the City Clerk position but that right now she still has doctors' appointments and she would not like to be tied down to 40 hours per week. She has said that she would like to have that job so Mayor Harmon presented Kim Pope as the council wishes. Council Member Miller asked if the council should set certain hours. Mayor Harmon said that she told him that she would take the job and just get the job done but that she wanted the council to know that she has still appointments that she has to keep up with. Council Member Ransom said that she could motion to the Mayor in long meetings when she needs to get up and move around since she cannot sit still for long periods of time. City Attorney Daley recommended that she be allowed to work a flexible schedule.

Motion: Council Member Ransom motioned to hire Kim Pope as the City Clerk with a flexible schedule.

2nd: Council Member Miller Passed 4-0

Mayor Harmon said that he thinks Joe is doing a good job and since the Mayor does appoint Department Heads he would like to appoint Joseph Wilson as the Recreation Director of Temple

Motion: Council Member Walden motioned to approve the Mayor's appointment

2nd: Council Member Ransom Passed 4-0

City Administrator, Mr. Hill, asked for clarification that each of these people would be paid at the same rate listed in the budget. Mayor Harmon confirmed that this would be the case.
